

A I was and am now.

Q Did you attend services regularly in Christ Church?

A Not so very regularly, no, sir.

Q Did you go to St. Johns at all?

A Once in a blue moon as the saying is.

Q Well, now, after Mr. and Mrs. Hall were married, Mr. Hall came to live in the Stevens house?

A Yes, sir.

Q And they were married in 1911?

A I couldn't be positive of the date.

Q Were you and Mr. Hall friendly?

A Always.

Q Did Mr. Hall have anything to do with your financial affairs?

A Not soever.

Q All of your money is in trust, isn't it, Will?

A Yes, sir.

Q And there are two different funds, aren't there?

A What do you mean?

Q Two different trust funds? What I am trying to get at is who are the trustees of the different trust funds that you have? I know that Henry and Mrs. Hall are trustees of one trust fund.

A The only one I knew of; they always were in the
